

CALL FOR PAPERS

Full Title: Issues in the Study of Icelandic. The Húnaland Meeting

Date: 23-May-2025

Location: Budapest, Hungary

Contact Person: Hans-Martin Gaertner

Meeting Email: icelandic@nytud.hun-ren.hu

Web Site: <https://nytud.hu/en/event/issues-in-the-study-of-icelandic-the-hunaland-meeting-2>

Linguistic Field(s): Various

Language Family(ies): Germanic

Call Deadline: 2-Feb-2025

Notification of Acceptance: 2-March-2025

Meeting Description: We invite abstracts from all subfields of linguistics (syntax, semantics, pragmatics, phonology, morphology, sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics, language acquisition, historical linguistics, etc) addressing the nature, origin, and use of Icelandic. In addition to presentations of current research, we welcome papers systematically surveying findings from the literature regarding particular topics - such as long-distance reflexivization, clause combining, discourse markers etc - focused on Icelandic.

VENUE: HUN-REN Hungarian Research Centre for Linguistics, Budapest

ORGANISERS: Hans-Martin Gaertner (HUN-REN Hungarian Research Centre for Linguistics)

INVITED SPEAKERS:

Nicole Dehé (University of Konstanz)

Thórhallur Eythórsson (University of Iceland)

Submission Details

Authors can submit an anonymous abstract of at most two pages (excluding references), with 1 inch margin and 11pt font (pdf format). The time for presentations of accepted submissions is 30 mins (20/25 mins + Q&A). Abstracts should be sent to icelandic@nytud.hun-ren.hu and reach us by 2 February 2025. Author details (name, affiliation, e-mail address) should be stated in the body of the e-mail message.